HIGHLIGHTS OF GAMES PLAYED

Akron started off the Ohio soccer season by meeting Ivy League powerhouse, Brown University in the annual Acme-Zip game. The Bruins belted the Zips, 3-0. Both coaches agreed that the game was a closer contest than the score indicated. Brown fired 26 shots and Akron attempted 25. It was a case of a former Ohio coach (Cliff Stevenson coached at Oberlin) teaching a former pupil (Stu Parry played for Stevenson at Oberlin) a lesson in the advantages of a good short-passing game.
