

QUEIROGA AND ALTERI SHARE SPOTLIGHT ON ALL-OHIO TEAM 1967

Sharing the spotlight on the 1967 All-Ohio soccer team are Joe Queiroga of Akron and Oberlin's Jeff Alteri. A second team All-American center halfback last season, Queiroga helped the Zip booters win their eighth Ohio Collegiate Soccer Association title in 10 years. Center forward Alteri kicked 15 goals in guiding Oberlin to an 8-1 record and a runnerup spot to Akron. Both Queiroga and Alteri were voted the Carl Dale Memorial Trophy emblematic of the Ohio Defensive and Offensive Player of the Year, respectively.

Akron placed six players on the team--three on first and three on the second. Wooster matched the Zips with three first team berths, while Oberlin and Ohio State had two spots each.

Besides Queiroga, Andy Vadnay (Akron) and Mo Rajabi (Wooster) were first team repeaters. Vadnay finished out his college career by being voted on the mythical team for the fourth consecutive year. As a freshman the AU left wing was on the second team, received an honorable mention in 1965 and earned first team spots the last two years.

BOB HARRISON VOTED OHIO SOCCER COACH OF THE YEAR

You might regard Bob Harrison as a busy man in his field. At Kenyon College, Bob Harrison is head coach in three sports--basketball, tennis and soccer. He has handled all three for the last 10 years.

This last year Harrison's cagers compiled an 18-6 mark (breaking 18 records en route) and his tennis team finished 7-3, good enough for second place in the Ohio Conference. However, Harrison's big thrill for the year was the performance of his soccer team which he led to the runnerup spot in the NCAA College Division Mideast Regional.

Harrison took essentially the same team that in 1966 had won only four of 10 games and molded them into a winning unit. While compiling a 7-4-1 record the Lord booters established nine new Kenyon standards. For his outstanding coaching effort Harrison has been rewarded by being voted the 1967 Ohio Collegiate Soccer Coach of the Year.
